

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Cottage By the Sea.

Childhood's days now pass before me,
 Forms and scenes of days ago,
 Like a dream they pass before my eyes,
 As bright as evening's glow;
 Days that knew no shade of sorrow,
 When my young heart pure and free,
 Joyful hailed each coming morn,
 In the cottage by the sea.

Fancy sees the rose-trees twining
 Round the old and rustic door,
 And below the white beach shining,
 Where I gathered shells of yore;
 Hears my mother's gentle warning,
 As she took me on her knee,
 And I feel again life's morning,
 In the cottage by the sea.

What though years have rolled above me,
 Though mild fairs scenes I roam,
 Yet, I ne'er shall cease to love thee,
 Childhood's dear and happy home;
 And when life's long day is closing,
 Oh! how pleasant it would be,
 On some faithful breast reposing,
 In the cottage by the sea.

VIVIEN'S SONG.

From "Merlin and Vivien."

By ALFRED TENNYSON.

Other selections from this author, his portrait, autograph and biographical sketch, have already been printed in this series.

I N Love, if Love be Love, if Love be ours,
 Faith and unfaith can ne'er be equal powers:
 Unfaith in aught is want of faith in all.

It is the little rift within the lute
 That by and by will make the music mute,
 And ever widening slowly silence all;

That little rift within the lute's lute,
 Or little pitted speck in garnered fruit,
 That rotting inward slowly moulders all.

It is not worth the keeping; let it go:
 But shall it? answer, darling, answer, no.
 And trust me not at all or all in all.

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, October 11, 1903. One is published each day.

TO SALVE OLD WRECK. Captain Wheaton to Use Novel Method.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) NORFOLK, Va., July 11.—Having remained buried in the sand, beneath ten feet of water for five years, an effort is being made to rescue the cargo of the schooner Minnie B. Bergen, which was wrecked near Chicomoclen, N. C. The cargo consists of two hundred tons of steel rails, a locomotive and other machinery. Vessel and cargo had almost been forgotten until Captain John Wheaton, of Washington, N. C., conceived the idea of saving the cargo. He donned a diving suit and went down to the wreck several times to investigate. He found that west winds would cause the sands to be washed from the wreck, leaving the cargo bare, when east winds would again cause it to be covered up. Captain Wheaton will build a wharf out to the wreck, and by the use of a sand pump, remove the sand and save the cargo. Fifteen years ago after a life-saver and passing vessels had abandoned efforts to rescue three men who were lashed to the mast of a sunken ship off Hatteras, Captain Wheaton put out alone in a small boat, and despite a terrific storm saved the three men.

Wakefield Cleanings. (Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WAKEFIELD, Va., July 11.—Miss Frances Star, of Petersburg, gave a splendid entertainment in the town hall last evening, assisted by Miss Ruth Evans, of Nantux, N. C., and Misses Grace and Elsie West, of Waverly, Va.

The musical numbers by Misses Evans and West were rendered in the most skillful manner and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

The Secret of Good Coffee

Even the best housekeepers cannot make a good cup of coffee without good material. Dirty, adulterated and queerly blended coffee such as unscrupulous dealers shovel over their counters won't do. But take the pure, clean, natural flavored LION COFFEE, the leader of all package coffees—the coffee that for over a quarter of a century has been daily welcomed in millions of homes—and you will make a drink fit for a king in this way:

HOW TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE.

Use LION COFFEE, because to get best results you must use the best coffee. Grind your LION COFFEE rather fine. Use 1/4 tablespoonful to each cup, and one stre for the pot. First mix it with a little cold water enough to make a thick paste, and add white of an egg (if egg is to be used as a settler), then follow one of the following rules:

1st. WITH BOILING WATER. Add boiling water, and let it boil THREE MINUTES ONLY. Add a little cold water and set aside five minutes to settle. Serve promptly.

2d. WITH COLD WATER. Add your cold water to the paste and bring it to a boil. Then set aside, add a little cold water, and in five minutes is ready to serve.

3. (Don't boil it too long. Don't let it stand more than ten minutes before serving. Don't use water that has been boiled before.

TWO WAYS TO SETTLE COFFEE. 1st. With Eggs. Use part of the white of an egg, mixing it with the ground LION COFFEE before boiling. 2d. With Cold Water. Instead of eggs. After boiling add a dash of cold water, and set aside for eight or ten minutes, then serve through a strainer.

Insist on getting a package of genuine LION COFFEE, prepare it according to this recipe and you will only use LION COFFEE in future. (Sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages.) (Lion-head on every package.) (Have these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)
